- PRESS RELEASE -

FUNK CULTURE: Seven Musicians, One Groove – Unforgettable Funk Classics

When the unmistakable sound of funk, soul, and disco takes over the stage, FUNK CULTURE is there to deliver the groove. The seven-piece band from Freiburg brings together professional musicians on vocals, guitar, piano, saxophone, bass, drums, and percussion, creating an energetic live experience that gets audiences moving from the very first note.

Born from the renowned formation FOR FUTURE BAND, FUNK CULTURE combines musical excellence with infectious enthusiasm and a genuine passion for authentic, handcrafted live music.

At the heart of their repertoire are the greatest funk and disco-funk hits of past decades. Classics by the Jackson Five, Jamiroquai, and Earth, Wind & Fire are brought back to life with powerful horn arrangements, deep grooves, and an impressive stage presence. The result is a dynamic concert experience full of energy, emotion, and musical passion.

Whether at city festivals, music events, corporate functions, or concert venues – FUNK CULTURE delivers a professional live sound and a captivating performance that creates unforgettable moments. The band stands for outstanding live entertainment and the timeless spirit of a music genre that continues to connect generations.

With FUNK CULTURE, every event becomes a true funk celebration – where groove, movement, and musical excellence take center stage.
